

Investment Analyst Intern Position

Maxus Capital

Maxus Capital is an entrepreneurial private equity fund focusing on small and mid-cap buyouts across Europe and US. Maxus targets primary fund investments alongside direct co-investments and secondaries. Established in 2022, Maxus is currently investing from its first fund (€205m fund size) with a team of 7 individuals spread across Belgium and London.

Maxus is backed by a select group of leading entrepreneurs and advisers across the Benelux and Europe. We are a young and dynamic organization with ambitious growth plans.

The Role

We are seeking a proactive and curious Investment Analyst Intern to join our team. This role offers an immersive experience in the European and American small and mid-cap private equity fund sector, as well as the opportunity to work on co-investments with leading fund managers.

Here's what you'll be doing in the role...

- Assist in the full due diligence process and presentation of potential investments
- Contribute to ongoing market mapping efforts and identify new investment opportunities
- Monitor and support the management of our growing portfolio of fund investments and co-investments
- Gain exposure to legal documentation, including LPAs, side letters, and subscription documents
- Maintain and improve our CRM platform
- Participate in various ad hoc projects

Requirements

We are seeking highly motivated candidates to join our Ghent (Eke) office for a period of 4 to 6 months, starting after the summer. We welcome applicants from diverse backgrounds, but prior internship experience in the following areas is a plus:

- Direct investments firms (private equity, growth equity or venture capital)
- Investment banking or management consulting, with a strong understanding of the private equity landscape and a demonstrable interest in the sector
- Fund-of-funds, placement agents, or other private market investors

Whatever your prior experience, we're looking for a passionate individual and evidence of your ability to work diligently and make things happen.

In addition, the right soft skills are critical for this role. The successful candidate will have the following attributes:

- Entrepreneurial, "can do" attitude
- Comfortable working with a high level of autonomy
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office (Excel, Powerpoint, Word)
- Skilled at building new relationships
- Highly curious and eager to learn
- Ability to develop and defend convictions
- Fluent English (oral and written), Dutch is a plus

Please be aware this role requires in-person attendance at our office and cannot be performed on a fully-remote basis.

Benefits

Competitive package with a path to a full-time Investment Analyst role based on performance.
